Nidec Corp. Retained No.1 Position Three Years in a Row on 2015 All-Japan Executive Team

Nidec Corporation (NYSE: NJ) was selected as the best company by 557 investors and sell-side analysts over the world for the third straight year in the All-Japan Executive Team ranking, a survey conducted by Institutional Investor, one of the world's foremost financial magazines.

Institutional Investor announced on June 1, 2015 that it had selected Shigenobu Nagamori, President and CEO, as the best CEO, Masuo Yoshimatsu as the best CFO, two IR officers as the best IR Professional, and the company as the best IR team in the Electronics/Components sector. Nidec claimed a first-place victory in all 8 segments (Best CEO, Best CFO, Best IR Professionals and Best IR company voted by sell-side and buy-side analysts), which made Nidec the No.1 in the overall rating in Japan according to the ranking.

Aside from Nidec, the highest-rated companies include Softbank Corp., Panasonic Corp., KDDI Corp. and Komatsu Ltd..
