

Nidec Sankyo Speed Skater Nana Takagi Contributes to the Winning of the Women's Team Pursuit Title at the 4th Stage of the ISU World Cup Speed Skating

On December 12, Nana Takagi of Nidec Sankyo and two other members of the Japanese national team won the women's team pursuit gold medal at the fourth stage of the International Skating Union's World Cup Speed Skating held in Heerenveen, the Netherlands.

The team achieved this victory, which comes as its second consecutive win after the third stage of the ISU World Cup Speed Skating held in Inzell, Germany, by beating the Dutch national team, whose members skated as local people cheered on.
